Good Morning

Charlie Smith, Marketing Director VisitScotland will be in New York for Scotland Week from Monday 6th April and wondered if there would be possibility of continuing the conversation started at Trump Turnberry last month?

Please let me know if you have any availability to meet?

Kind regards

Hello [REDACTED] and [REDACTED],

I just wanted to pop across a brief note to say many thanks for your hospitality throughout yesterday and your outstanding company at dinner last night. I'd be grateful if you can also express my thanks to Eric and the rest of the team in hosting a tremendous day.

The media undoubtedly went away extremely excited, not just about the Women's British Open in July, but about the fantastic plans in store for Trump Turnberry. The proposals look magnificent and will ensure that Turnberry remains one of the jewels in Scotland's golfing crown for many years to come. Golfing heaven indeed.

From our perspective, we are truly excited about the passion, energy and commitment of the Trump Organisation to golf in Scotland. I am very much looking forward to continuing to work with the teams at Turnberry and in Aberdeen to promote golf in this fantastic part of the world and if you ever need any help, assistance or support on that front please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your interest in becoming the Host Venue for our proposed bid to host The 2019 Solheim Cup in Scotland.

I am delighted to inform you that Trump International Golf Links has been shortlisted to progress to the second stage of the selection process. I have attached a letter confirming your progress to stage 2 and an application form requesting supplementary information to help us consider all potential costs and benefits associated with your venue.

We look forward to receiving your completed stage 2 submission in due course and thank you again for the interest you have shown in the selection process to date.

Dear [redacted],

Following on from our recent correspondence regarding the Stage 2 venue selection process, we would now like to arrange a site visit to your venue on Thursday 28 May at 2:30pm.

We anticipate the meeting will last about 2-3 hours. The format for the session will be an informal initial meeting with your bid lead(s) to discuss your application in further detail. In particular we are interested in talking through the hosting requirements, potential commercial arrangements, assessing the capability of your venue to accommodate 30,000 spectators, temporary infrastructure arrangements and also review possible parking options.

We would also like to undertake a brief tour of the key indoor facilities; on course, the 1st Tee, 15-18th holes and if possible, the potential parking sites.

The delegation will consist of [redacted] (Senior Golf Manager), [redacted] (Project Manager and previously Ryder Cup PM) and [redacted] (independent consultant and previous 2011 Solheim Cup Safety Officer).

If you could please confirm with me if the Wednesday is suitable that would be appreciated.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Subject: Solheim Stage 2 Site Visit
Dear [REDACTED],

Following on from our recent correspondence regarding the Stage 2 venue selection process, we would now like to arrange a site visit to your venue on Thursday 28 May at 2:30pm. We anticipate the meeting will last about 2-3 hours. The format for the session will be an informal initial meeting with your bid lead(s) to discuss your application in further detail. In particular we are interested in talking through the hosting requirements, potential commercial arrangements, assessing the capability of your venue to accommodate 30,000 spectators, temporary infrastructure arrangements and also review possible parking options.

We would also like to undertake a brief tour of the key indoor facilities; on course, the 1st Tee, 15-18th holes and if possible, the potential parking sites.

The delegation will consist of [REDACTED] (Senior Golf Manager), [REDACTED] (Project Manager and previously Ryder Cup PM) and [REDACTED] (independent consultant and previous 2011 Solheim Cup Safety Officer).

If you could please confirm with me if the Wednesday is suitable that would be appreciated.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
