

2 August 2023

Request under The Freedom Of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request dated 2 August 2023, in which you requested the following information which I have responded to in the right-hand column below:

Information requested	2023 Cycling World Championships Ltd response
I can see how Glasgow City Centre will benefit economically from the 10 day event. But what about areas which are outside the city such as East Dunbartonshire where I live! How much will be generated for my area in £ and Pence?	2023 Cycling World Championships Ltd does not hold the information that you have requested. Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 states that where public authorities receive requests for information that they do not hold, they must issue a notice advising that they do not hold the requested information. It is our expectation that a post-event report will be published later this year however the data to compile the report will be measured at a UK, Scottish and Glasgow level and will not be broken down into individual local authority areas.

We hope this information is helpful to you. If, however, you are not satisfied with our response or the manner in which we have dealt with your application, you may in the first instance contact our Head of Governance and Business Services, Paul Stark, whose contact details are set out below:

Mr Paul Stark
Head of Governance and Business Services
2023 Cycling World Championships Ltd
c/o VisitScotland
Ocean Point One
94 Ocean Drive
Edinburgh, EH6 6JH
E-mail: paul.stark@cyclingworldchamps.com

If you wish to request a review of your application under either the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 or the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004, your request should be submitted to us in writing, or another permanent format (for example e-mail or voice recording), and be received by us within 40 days of the date of this letter. Any request for a review should also set out, in as much detail as possible, the reasons why you are not satisfied with our response or the manner in which we have dealt with your application.

If you are still not satisfied with our handling of your application after we have responded to your request for a review, you have a right to apply to the Scottish

Information Commissioner for a decision on whether we have dealt with your request in accordance with the Act.

The Scottish Information Commissioner may be contacted at:

Scottish Information Commissioner
Kinburn Castle
Doubledykes Road
St Andrews, Fife
KY16 9DS
Telephone: 01334 464610
Fax: 01334 464611
E-mail: enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

You also have the right to appeal to the Court of Session in Scotland on a point of law concerning our response.

Yours sincerely,

2023 Cycling World Championships Ltd