Your Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“the Act”) request

Thank you for your email which was received by VisitScotland on 31st March at 15:51 requesting information about :

“ a list of all missing people in your national park under the freedom of information act. Can you supply me a full list please”.

VisitScotland’s Response

VisitScotland does not hold the information that you have requested. Section 17 of the Act states that where public authorities receive requests for information that they do not hold, they must issue a notice advising that they do not hold the requested information. This letter provides you with that notice.

There are two other public authorities listed below which may be able to help you with your request and I’ve included their freedom of information email addresses which I hope are of assistance :-

Cairngorms National Park Authority information@cairngorms.co.uk

Police Scotland foi@scotland.police.uk

Your right to seek a review

If you wish to request a review of your application under either the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 or the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004, your request should be submitted to us in writing, or another permanent format (for example e-mail or voice recording) to:

Ms Vicki Miller
Chief Executive
VisitScotland
