

SCOTLAND: COVID-19 PROTECTION LEVELS

Correct as of 23 February 2021 | until 5 April 2021

Subject to Scottish Government review

LEVEL FOUR Stay at Home

ACCOMMODATION

Essential only no tourism

SOCIALISING / HOSPITALITY

Takeaway only (where offered) for consumption off site

No in-home socialising
(limited exceptions)

Outdoors – max 2 people from 2 households (excluding children under 12)

TRAVEL

Stay home

No unnecessary travel

No use of public transport,
except for essential travel

VISITOR ATTRACTIONS/ SHOPPING

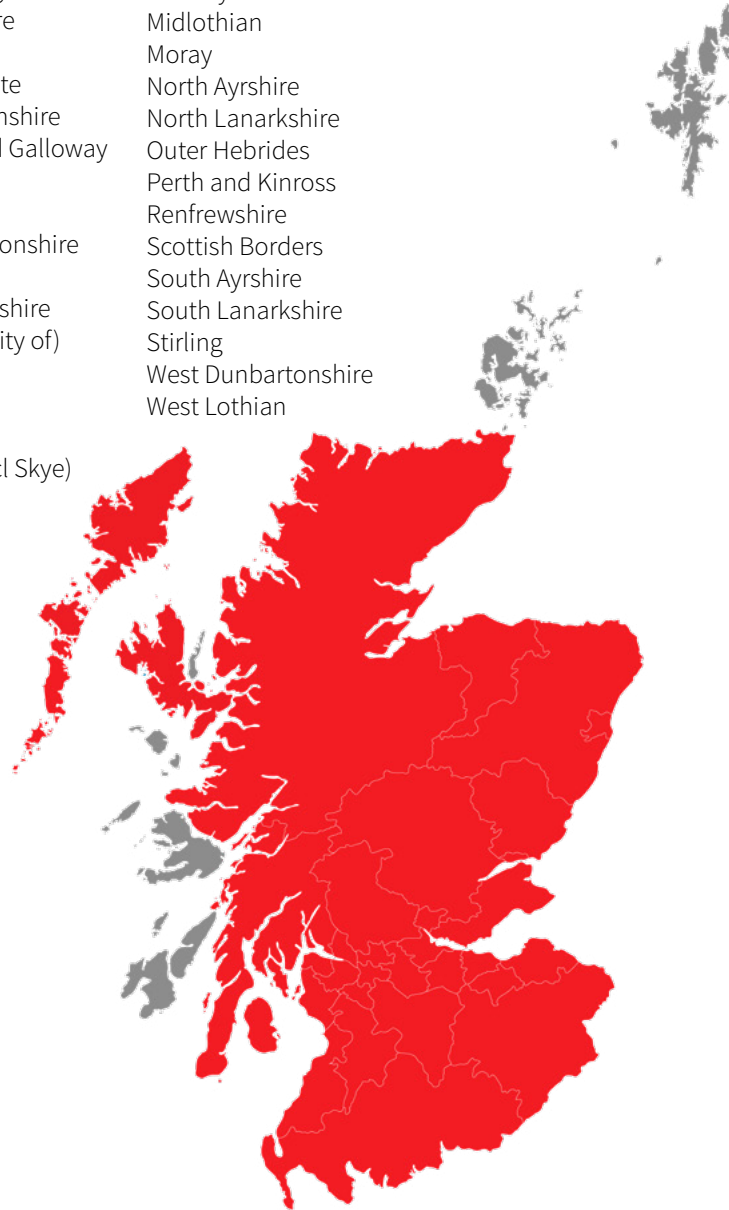

Closed
Indoor visitor attractions

Open
Outdoor parks and gardens to enable exercise

only essential retail permitted

Areas in level four (stay at home)

| | |
|-----------------------|---------------------|
| Aberdeen City | Inverclyde |
| Aberdeenshire | Midlothian |
| Angus | Moray |
| Argyll and Bute | North Ayrshire |
| Clackmannanshire | North Lanarkshire |
| Dumfries and Galloway | Outer Hebrides |
| Dundee City | Perth and Kinross |
| East Ayrshire | Renfrewshire |
| East Dunbartonshire | Scottish Borders |
| East Lothian | South Ayrshire |
| East Renfrewshire | South Lanarkshire |
| Edinburgh (City of) | Stirling |
| Falkirk | West Dunbartonshire |
| Fife | West Lothian |
| Glasgow City | |
| Highland (incl Skye) | |

Observe Scottish
Government health advice and guidelines at all levels

Remember F A C T S

Face covering

Avoid crowds

Clean hands

Two metres

Self isolate

You should not share a journey in a private car with someone outside your household.

Look out for the Good to Go logo which indicates tourism businesses following Government Covid-19 reopening guidelines.